All attorneys in the above referenced case are hereby ordered to confer with their clients and counsel for all other parties regarding the appropriateness of a alternative dispute resolution (ADR) process as a beneficial alternative to trial. If you are not represented by an attorney, you shall confer directly with staff at the DeKalb Courts Dispute Resolution Center (404 370-8194) to determine whether alternative dispute resolution services would be appropriate for your case. All parties are required to return this form to the Clerk's office by hand or mail to: Room 230, DeKalb County Courthouse, 556 N. McDonough St, Decatur, GA 30030, within one hundred and twenty (120) days of this date.

SO ORDERED THIS 29th OF July, 2010

[Handwritten Signature]
Judge, State Court of DeKalb County

All attorneys/parties acknowledge they have read the *Dispute Resolution Center brochure from the DeKalb County State Court and have conferred with their clients and the opposing side of Center directly about utilization of ADR services.

- () We wish to utilize ADR services and we will contact the DeKalb Dispute Resolution Center within the next 15 days to begin scheduling.
- () We are determining use of ADR. We will contact the court by _____ with our election.
- () This case is likely to settle within _____ days without ADR.
- () We elect to use private ADR and will report results to the court by _____. We are aware by electing private ADR we are waiving the opportunity for ADR costs being covered by the county's ADR services.
- (x) We do not wish to utilize an ADR process. Estimated length of trial 5 days.
Case to be/not to be reported.
