All attorneys in the above referenced case are hereby ordered to confer with their clients and counsel for all other parties regarding the appropriateness of a alternative dispute resolution (ADR) process as a beneficial alternative to trial. If you are not represented by an attorney, you shall confer directly with staff at the DeKalb Courts Dispute Resolution Center (404 370-8194) to determine whether alternative dispute resolution services would be appropriate for your case. All parties are required to return this form to the Clerk's office by hand or mail to: Room 230, DeKalb County Courthouse, 556 N. McDonough St, Decatur, GA 30030, within one hundred and twenty (120) days of this date.

SO ORDERED THIS 29th OF July, 2010

Judge, State Court of DeKalb County

All attorneys/parties acknowledge they have read the *Dispute Resolution Center brochure from the DeKalb County State Court and have conferred with their clients and the opposing side or Center directly about utilization of ADR services.

- We wish to utilize ADR services and we will contact the DeKalb Dispute Resolution Center within the next 15 days to begin scheduling.
- We are determining use of ADR. We will contact the court by _____ with our election.
- This case is likely to settle within _____ days without ADR.
- We elect to use private ADR and will report results to the court by two weeks before trial. We are aware by electing private ADR we are waiving the opportunity for ADR costs being covered by the county's ADR services.
- We do not wish to utilize an ADR process. Estimated length of trial _____ days.
Case to be/not to be reported.
